The Stan Kendziorski International Student Scholarship has been established through the generosity of an anonymous donor, alumni, friends, and faculty/staff at Slippery Rock University. Stan Kendziorski was a faculty member at SRU from 1968 to 1998 and served as Director of International Services from 1980-1998. The scholarship is intended to recognize and reward a well-rounded international student who contributed significantly to the university in both academic and student life. The minimum amount of the 2008-2009 scholarship will be $2,000.

International students who are first time undergraduates and have a graduation date of December 2008, May 2009, or August 2009 are eligible to apply for this award. Criteria for consideration include a minimum of six semesters in residence at SRU prior to graduation, financial need, academic achievement, extra-curricular activities, a two-page typed essay titled, "The Most Important Thing I Learned at SRU," a resume, and two letters of recommendation. One letter must be from a faculty member and neither can come from anyone in the International Services Office.

The application form is enclosed. Applications are due in the International Services Office by March 14, 2008. Finalists may be interviewed. If you have any questions please contact the International Services Office.

PLEASE RETURN THE APPLICATION FORM, YOUR ESSAY, RESUME, AND TWO LETTERS OF
RECOMMENDATION TO THE INTERNATIONAL
SERVICES OFFICE BY MARCH 14, 2008.
PLEASE TYPE OR PRINT ALL INFORMATION.
