

What Can I Do With a Major in HISTORY

Students in the program will gain knowledge and develop skills that they will use if they decide to continue specialized study in history.

Skills Associated with History Majors

Public speaking skills
Ability to concentrate for long periods of time
Analytical mind
Reflective nature
Appreciation of past events
Desire to research
Proficiency in reading, writing, and research
Intellectual capacity to excel in undergraduate and graduate programs
Ability to collect and organize historical data
Strong communication skills
Keen observation skills
Attention to detail and accuracy

Sample Career Titles:

Anthropologist	Foreign Service Officer	Museum Technician
Antique Dealer	Genealogist	Museum Specialist
Archaeologist	Gerontologist	Newspaper Reporter
Architectural Historian	Government Official	Non-Profit Director
Archivist	Historian	Paralegal Assistant
Biographer	Historic Preservation	Park Ranger
Campaign Director	Specialist	Peace Corps
Character Interpreter	Historic Site Tour Guide	Political Scientist
Clergy	Historical Society Staff	Politician
College Professor	Member	Psychologist
Community Relations	Human Service Worker	Public Administrator
Director	Insurance Agent/Broker	Public Relations Specialist
Congressional Aide	Intelligence Analyst	Research Assistant
Consumer Advocate	International Relations	Research Library Assistant
Counselor	Specialist	Restoration Architect
Criminologist	Journalist	Retail Management
Curator	Judge	Sociologist
Demographer	Lawyer	Teacher, Social Studies
Economist	Lecturer	Technical Writer
Editor	Legal Assistant/Paralegal	Tour Guide
Exhibit Designer	Lobbyist	Travel Agent
FBI/CIA Agent	Market Research Analyst	Urban Administrator
Foreign News	Media Consultant	Urban Planner
Correspondent	Museum Curator	Writer/Author

 Some careers may require further training and/or educational degree
Visit Career Services, 103 Maltby, to explore these and other careers using DISCOVER.